

61 Review: Parts of Speech

A. Circle the five common nouns below. Write a proper noun to replace each article and common noun.

1. The president arrived. _____
2. The mayor is traveling. _____
3. I visited a museum. _____
4. The street is busy and noisy. _____
5. The city is large and exciting. _____

Score: _____ Total Possible: 10

B. Write the correct pronoun in each blank.

Clint's mother just told _____¹ about the family's vacation plans. Now _____² is excited and is telling all of _____³ about this great trip. _____⁴ are going to Disney World, a place Clint and _____⁵ brother have always wanted to see. My sister and _____⁶ told _____⁷ mother that _____⁸ thought a trip to Florida sounded great. _____⁹ agreed but said _____¹⁰ won't happen soon!

Score: _____ Total Possible: 10

C. Underline seven verbs in the paragraph. Above each underlined verb, write a stronger verb to make the story more exciting.

The storm came. Thunder sounded. Suddenly, a bolt of lightning hit the tree in the yard. The tree broke into pieces and fell. We came up from the basement. The storm moved toward the next part of town.

Score: _____ Total Possible: 14

D. Make the sentences more interesting by writing an adjective in each blank.

1. The _____ car led a _____ parade.
2. The _____ event was well-attended.
3. _____ boys and girls wore _____ clothes.
4. _____ adults wore _____ jeans and T-shirts.
5. We enjoyed a _____ lunch.

Score: _____ Total Possible: 8

E. Circle an adverb in each sentence.

1. The wind blew fiercely across the sand.
2. The canvas tent flapped noisily.
3. The air seemed very cool when night came.
4. Inside the tent, Anna danced wildly.
5. She loved the wind and was too excited to mind the cold.

Score: _____ Total Possible: 5

F. Draw a delete mark through each incorrect article. Write the correct article above the incorrect word. If all of the articles in a sentence are correct, write C above the sentence. There are four incorrect articles.

1. Abiyoyo was a fearsome giant!
2. Actually, he was a ogre!
3. He danced when an ukulele was played.
4. The boy with the ukulele was an hero.
5. That boy over there is a one who saved the town.

Score: _____ Total Possible: 9

G. Write the part of speech above each word in the sentence below.

A fat frog croaked loudly.

Score: _____ Total Possible: 5

REVIEW SCORE: _____ REVIEW TOTAL: 61